

University of Montana

ScholarWorks at University of Montana

University of Montana News Releases, 1928,
1956-present

University Relations

5-2-1977

University of Montana events Monday, May 2, through Sunday, May 8, 1977

University of Montana--Missoula. Office of University Relations

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarworks.umt.edu/newsreleases>

Let us know how access to this document benefits you.

Recommended Citation

University of Montana--Missoula. Office of University Relations, "University of Montana events Monday, May 2, through Sunday, May 8, 1977" (1977). University of Montana News Releases, 1928, 1956-present. 28264.

<https://scholarworks.umt.edu/newsreleases/28264>

This News Article is brought to you for free and open access by the University Relations at ScholarWorks at University of Montana. It has been accepted for inclusion in University of Montana News Releases, 1928, 1956-present by an authorized administrator of ScholarWorks at University of Montana. For more information, please contact scholarworks@mso.umt.edu.

EVENTS

UNIVERSITY OF MONTANA

Information Services 406/243-2522

Monday, May 2, through Sunday, May 8, 1977

MONDAY, MAY 2

Tickets to the noon luncheon May 23, planned in honor of James Reston, New York Times columnist, will be available to University of Montana students for the reduced rate of $1.50 from Monday, May 2, through Friday, May 13, at the ticket office in the Associated Students' Store in the University Center. The general public may purchase the tickets there for $2.50 from Monday, May 16, through Friday, May 20. Reston will be on campus Monday and Tuesday, May 23-24, and will present the eighth Mansfield Lecture on International Relations at 8 p.m. on May 23rd in the University Center Ballroom. Title of his talk is "Mike." The lecture series honors former U.S. Sen. Mike Mansfield, who also is former Senate Majority Leader, and who is a professor of history on leave from the University. During his visit to UM, Reston will address students in a number of UM classes.

TUESDAY, MAY 3

A chamber music recital featuring 15 University of Montana students will be presented at 8 p.m. Tuesday, May 3, in the UM Music Recital Hall. The recital is open to the public without charge under the sponsorship of the UM School of Fine Arts and Department of Music. Works on the program include "Trio for Clarinet, Violoncello and Piano" by Beethoven; "String Quartet No. 1" by Walter Piston; "Quartet" by Pierre Max Dubois, and "Blaserquintett, B-Dur, Op. 56, #1" by Franz Danzi. UM students participating in Tuesday's program include Terri Drew, Lane Grant, Kris Anderson, Sam Taylor, Colleen Hunter, Cheryl Couch, Anne Schuster, Russ White, Jerry Satner, Guy Letourneau, Todd Kaye, Sheila Warehime, Stacey Wentworth, Vicki Johnson and Adella Junkert.

(Tuesday, May 3, Cont.)

Artworks entered in the University of Montana Annual Juried Student Exhibition will be on display from Tuesday, May 3, through Friday, May 13, in the Gallery of Visual Arts in Turner Hall at UM. An opening reception for the exhibit will be from 7-9 p.m. Tuesday, May 3, in the Gallery. Gallery hours are noon to 6 p.m. Tuesday through Friday and noon to 4 p.m. Saturday. The Gallery of Visual Arts is closed Sunday and Monday.

WEDNESDAY, MAY 4

Films entitled "Rock Creek" and "The Way of the Trout" will be shown at 7 p.m. Wednesday, May 4, in room 215 of the University of Montana Women's Center.

The Utah Symphony Orchestra will be in concert at 8 p.m. Wednesday, May 4, in the University Theater.

Dr. Robert B. Hausmann, associate professor of English and chairman of the linguistics program at the University of Montana, will give a free public lecture entitled "The Inherent Classism of the English Language" at 8 p.m. Wednesday, May 4, in room 131 of the UM Science Complex. Hausmann's talk is an expanded version of a paper he will deliver to the 12th International Congress of Linguists in Vienna, Austria, in early September. Drawing on evidence from his research on second dialect learning, second dialect imitation, child language acquisition, second language acquisition and adult language acquisition, Hausmann will argue that the American society and the American school system establish linguistic barriers, making the upward mobility of non-standard English speakers difficult.

-more-

SATURDAY, MAY 7

The Saturday Arts Enrichment Program for Missoula-area children from age 3 through high school age will continue each Saturday through May 28 at the University of Montana. The program is now in its 10th year. Cost of the program is 75 cents per session. Richard Reinholtz, associate professor of art at UM, who is directing the program, said the program offers children a chance to participate in a variety of arts, including painting, music, dance, drama and writing. Students of Reinholtz conduct the classes each Saturday in the UM Fine Arts Building. The program, sponsored by the UM Department of Art, has attracted from 75 to 200 children annually in past years. Further information about the program may be obtained by phoning the UM art department, 243-4181.

SUNDAY, MAY 8

A variety of works will be presented by the University of Montana Concert Band during a free public performance at 3 p.m. Sunday, May 8, in the University Center Ballroom. Butler R. Eitel, UM music professor, is band director.

The University of Montana School of Fine Arts and Department of Music will sponsor a free public recital by Richard Thomas, a UM student, at 8 p.m. Sunday, May 8, in the UM Music Recital Hall.

JOB OPENINGS AT THE UNIVERSITY OF MONTANA

The following job openings are listed in the UM Personnel Services Office, room 258 of the Lodge:

The University of Montana invites applications and nominations for the position of Equal Opportunity Officer. Applications, which should include resumes of professional background and experience, and the names/addresses of three to five references, should be sent to: Eldon E. Baker, Chairman, Equal Opportunity Officer Search Committee, Department of Interpersonal Communication, University of Montana, Missoula, Mont. 59812. Closing date for applications is June 15, 1977. Reporting date is Aug. 22, 1977.

JOB OPENINGS (cont.)

Research Assistant for the UM School of Forestry. Position available as soon as possible. Application deadline is Wednesday, May 4.

Speech Pathologists will be needed by the UM Department of Communication Sciences and Disorders July 2-Aug. 13 for the 19th annual Summer Residential Program sponsored by the department. Participants in the program will be from age 11 and up who display significant impairments of communication abilities and who might profit from an intensive remediation program. Applications will be accepted until positions are filled.

Do you have a job--part-time, summer or temporary--a student could fill?

There are a lot of students on campus who need a part-time (sometimes short-term) job to help fill-in the financial gaps of living and going to school. If you have any job a student could fill, please phone the UM Student Affairs Office, 243-4411, or stop by or send a note to the office, room 101 of the Lodge. Office hours are 8 a.m.-noon and 1-5 p.m.

-DS-